

HostV Named Platinum Sponsor and Hosting Partner of WordCamp China 2008 Blog Conference

NEW YORK (September 15, 2008) – HostV (<http://www.hostv.com>), a leader in Virtual Private Servers and Dedicated servers, announced today it has been named Platinum Sponsor and Hosting Partner of WordCamp China 2008, to be held next week in Beijing, China, and Shanghai, China. The event will gather hundreds of WordPress users and developers to discuss latest trends and innovations in the field.

As a hosting partner for WordCamp China 2008, HostV will have a booth in both the Beijing and Shanghai locations, and representatives will be on site to answer questions about WordPress Web hosting. WordPress founder Matt Mullenweg will give keynote speeches in both cities during the event.

“WordPress has proven itself as an integral application for the international blogging community. We have focused our energy over the past several years to not only support WordPress, but also provide a fully optimized and ready-to-go hosting environment for the script,” John Xie, President of Cirtex Corp., HostV parent company.

Virtual Private Servers optimized for WordPress start at $39.99 per month and include at 500GB of premium data transfer and 25GB if RAID 10 disk space. Plans also include the Virtuozzo Power Panel, cPanel, FFMpeg & Red5 (for video hosting), Fantastico script auto-installer, and a variety of other developer tools. All servers are fully monitored and include 24x7x365 premium technical support.
